

CAMEROONIAN TRAVEL DOCUMENT

WHAT IS A TRAVEL DOCUMENT OR “LAISSEZ-PASSER” OR SAUF-CONDUIT?

A Travel Document can be issued to any eligible Cameroonian citizen who desires to travel to Cameroon, but who does not possess a valid passport. Eligible Cameroonian citizens must reside in the area of jurisdiction of the Embassy of Cameroon in the Washington, D.C., which includes: the UNITED STATES of AMERICA, MEXICO, COSTA RICA, and the COMMONWEALTH of the BAHAMAS. The Travel Document is an alternative for those Cameroonians whose passport was lost/stolen or has expired, and who need to travel to Cameroon on an emergency basis. The Travel Document is a “pass” that enables those travelers to return to their home country without needing an actual passport.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE CAMEROONIAN TRAVEL DOCUMENT

- (1) A “One-Way-One-Destination” document: A Travel Document issued by the Embassy of Cameroon in Washington, D.C., may be used by its beneficiary to travel ONLY to Cameroon. It is not possible to obtain a visa for any other destination/country with the document or to use it to exit Cameroon at the end of one’s sojourn to travel to another country.
- (2) Validity: The following applies with regard to the Travel Document:
 - A travel document is valid for 90 days from the date of issuance. It must be used within that timeframe to travel to Cameroon or it becomes void.
 - Travelers finding themselves with a void Travel Document and desiring to travel to Cameroon at a later time can apply for a replacement Travel Document by submitting a new, complete application, along with a letter specifying the reason for requesting a new travel document.
 - A travel documents ceases to be valid as of the entry in Cameroon, where it is retained by the Border Police Authorities as its bearer is granted admission into Cameroon.
 - Travelers who return to Cameroon using a Travel Document must apply for, and obtain a new Cameroonian Passport while in Cameroon before traveling to another country!!!

PROCESSING TIME AND APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The processing time for a Travel Document application is approximately SEVEN (7) business days. Travelers should plan their trip accordingly and be aware that the processing time may extend over the seven (7) business days during peak periods such as before and during the summer or Christmas holidays, when the volume of requests submitted to the Embassy is usually higher.

Applications can be submitted to the Embassy in Washington, D.C., IN PERSON BY APPOINTMENT, or BY MAIL.

(1) IN PERSON

To apply IN PERSON, applicants must first schedule an appointment (see appointment scheduling procedure below), then prepare a complete application file including an Application Submission Sheet (download from the Embassy website, cut along the line, fill out both sides of the half-sheet and staple to the application file). If applying for a group of travelers, each individual file must bear the application submission sheet. When submitting the application file, half of the application submission sheet will remain with the file, and the other will be given as a receipt to the applicant.

HOW TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT WITH THE CONSULAR SECTION

- 03. Coming to your appointment: On the day of your appointment, and at the scheduled time, please bring the complete application file to the Consular Section of located at

04. IMPORTANT NOTES:

- a. Each person coming to the Embassy in person to submit an application for themselves or for a third party must schedule an appointment with the Consular Section. In the case of under-aged applicants, a parent, a legal guardian, or an agent must contact the Consular Section to schedule an appointment for the minor applicant.
- b. In the case of families, only one person needs to contact the Consular Section to schedule the appointment for the whole family. It will be required to indicate the number and the names of all persons coming to the appointment, whether they are applying or not. For example, if an under-aged applicant is accompanied by his father who is not applying himself, when scheduling the appointment, the father must give both names (his and the child's) – this is necessary to ensure that access will be granted to both the father and child.
- c. The presence of an under-aged applicant is not required for an application to be submitted to the Consular Section.
- d. Failure to register one's name when scheduling the appointment will result in denial of service/access.

(2) BY MAIL

To apply BY MAIL, send the travel document application(s) to the following address:

EMBASSY OF THE REPUBLIC OF CAMEROON
CONSULAR SECTION

Applicants must provide a prepaid return envelope with tracking, addressed from the Embassy (address above) to the applicant (indicate applicant's full name and address). They may use FedEx, UPS, or the United States Postal Service (USPS). All shipping costs must be covered by having the return costs paid upfront at a FedEx, UPS or USPS location, or an account/credit card number on the shipping label to charge for the service.

PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT THE CONSULAR SECTION WILL NOT START PROCESSING A TRAVEL DOCUMENT APPLICATION IF THERE IS NO PREPAID RETURN ENVELOPE WITH TRACKING THAT SATISFIES THE ABOVE REQUIREMENTS.

NOTES:

- Senders of application files by mail must ensure that tracking numbers are available on the original package sent to the Embassy and on the return package, and must record those tracking numbers to enable themselves to monitor the progress of to and fro shipping operations: It is not the Embassy's duty to provide return tracking numbers, whether by phone or by email, but rather the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that they retain this information in the first place.
- For applications sent by mail, the applicant CANNOT come in person to pick up their documents. Their return package will be mailed once the processing is complete.
- Refer to FedEx, UPS, or USPS's websites, or visit one of their locations to get transit rates for return packages; the Consular Section does not have that information!
- If tracking information indicates that a package has been delivered to the Embassy, the sender should rely on that tracking information and refrain from calling or emailing the Consular Section to verify the information.
